

Online Executive MBA FAQ's

What is Alethia Online (AOL)?

Alethia OnLine is an integral part of Alethia Education Services Pvt. Ltd. and offers online solutions that complement our executive education solutions education programmes. It responds to the demands of executives for access to lifelong learning tools in a convenient and easy to use package.

Drawing on the excellence of its distinguished faculty, staff and global development partners to create the best in online learning, Alethia OnLine offers a range of online courses and tools, including an Internet based-platform in management education.

What kinds of courses are offered?

Alethia OnLine provides online courses for post-programme modules to attend an on-site course. Most of our courses represent between 3 to 4 learning hours per module and can be taken as stand-alone Executive Education initiatives, for managers to follow at their own pace from their office, home or wherever they are.

Can I do an online MBA with Alethia OnLine?

Yes, we do offer an OnLine MBA and OnLine Executive MBA programme. Our online courses are conceptually designed, implementing practical aspects with accreditation from Karnataka State Open University, Mysore. To find out more about our on-site MBA and Executive programmes, please refer the Alethia web-site at www.alethiaeducation.com.

How are Alethia OnLine courses different from other e-learning options?

The content for our online programme comes directly from our renowned Alethia faculty, whose proximity to the real business world and investment in leading-edge research makes their insight. Continually challenged in the classroom with executive participants from all over the world, the teaching expertise and business acuity of our professors is the cornerstone of our pedagogy. Online Application that has been adapted by us for a Learning Management Solutions, our courses allow managers to learn as they work, in the flexible and environment of online learning.

Who must enroll?

Our easily accessible learning modules are aiming for individual vis-a-vis group for people who are striving to offer the best possible management education to their managers, in order to motivate them as they learn, and to retain their key management talent. Knowledge can be captured 'just-in-time' and circulated down to other managers to be shared across geographical and functional boundaries.

Likewise, managers who wish to improve their business skills exactly when they need it, without the constraints of travel and time away from the field, will enjoy the flexibility of self-planned online learning.

How are the courses structured?

Modules are structured as a sequence of practical exercises that each manager can follow simultaneously, planning the pace and inculcating the times that fit most conveniently within a busy professional and personal schedule. Managers learn by making decisions in real business scenarios, prompted by a mentor, who offers appropriate guidance and suggest the possible outcomes implementing in decision making.

How long are the courses?

Each module represents between 3 to 4 learning hours. This is the average time a candidate spends online with the course, but this can vary considerably from one individual to another. Once you have received your personal login and password to enter the course, your access will be valid for 5 years.

Are the courses facilitated (monitored by an online mentor)?

Except for the blended learning solutions which are available for corporate groups of 20+ managers, the courses are stand-alone modules without facilitation. This means that you will be working through the content at your own pace and at times that are convenient to you. If you are interested in a facilitated version of a particular course - a blended learning programme - for a group of your managers, please contact us at exe-mba@alethia.in .

What is the cost?

The total cost of OnLine executive MBA is Rs. 24,000. The facilitated courses within the context of a blended learning programme will entail a supplementary cost to be depending on the exact format. The price displayed does not include the taxes applicable. If you would like to open a corporate account, please send an email to exe-mba@alethia.in

Is it possible to obtain a certificate from Alethia OnLine?

Alethia OnLine will be happy to provide a certificate of completion for any modules taken. To obtain your certificate, please send an email to exe-mba@alethia.in confirming your registration number and the date you completed the course, together with your full name and postal address.

How do I enrol?

You may register directly from our web-site for any OnLine Executive MBA and gain immediate access to start at per own convenience. Payment is made by all modes only in Indian Rupee. Once your payment is validated, you will receive a confirmation of your registration by email. Shortly afterwards you will receive a second email with your personal login and password to access the course. Your login will be valid for a period of 5 years in total, during which time you may access the course(s) as many times as you wish.

What is AOL, the web-based platform?

AOL (Alethia OnLine) has created learning management solutions to support traditional classroom programmes and inter-modular project work. Before, during and after the programme, participants and faculty can access programme details, communicate with each other, and exchange ideas and documents, within a virtual learning on the internet. Access is password protected and only applicable to enrolled candidates. To find out more about our AOL platform, please send an email to exe-mba@alethia.in